evening in Salt Lake, Summit and Toowie counties for the selection of delegutes to the Third judicial district convention, which meets in this city on Saturday next to place in nomination three judges and one district attorney. Five meetings were held in the city and ten in the county. Everything, so far as known, was harmonious and matters were disposed of in a business-like manner. The First precinct is said to be diwided between D. C. Eichnor and Par-ley P. Christensen for district attor-ney, the judicial favorites being C. W. Morse and George F. Goodwin. The Second, it is claimed, favor Eich-nor first, and Christensen second. For judicial candidates the delegates are said to be for Morse and Wenger. Messrs. Lewis, Foofbourow and Ritchie each exhibit a certain amount of strength for third place.

The Third claims to have no choice or either of the places. The Fourth, while silent on the attor-

SUDDENLY STRICKEN DEAD. Mrs. James Bishop is Seized With Heart Failure, Dies Almost Instantly.

Mrs. Ellen O. Bishop, wife of James Bishop, No. 613 west First North street died last evening of heart failure. She was in the best of health, if feelings are a criterion, and had been working all day. In the evening she picked up the carden rake and commenced raking in garden rake and commenced raking in the front yard. Presently Mrs. Pitts, a neighbor, saw her reel and fall to the ground with a faint cry. Mr. Blanch was called and with others, who had stricken woman into the house, but she expired before they laid her down. Mrs. Bishop was 45 years of age, and leaves four children. It is thought that her death was brought on by over work during the day.
